

Have a Holly, Dolly Christmas at Dollywood Resorts
Dollywood Resorts Offer the Best of the Season for a Holiday Getaway

Pigeon Forge, Tennessee (October 23, 2024) – It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas at Dollywood Resorts. Dolly Parton's Great Smoky Mountain resorts have been busy stringing lights, hanging garland and decking their halls ahead of Dollywood's Smoky Mountain Christmas festival, which takes place in the theme park from November 1 through January 5, 2025.

While the resorts are the best way to experience more than 6 million holiday lights at Dollywood because they offer exclusive benefits like complimentary transportation, TimeSaver Passes, morning priority access to park attractions, package delivery of park purchases and more, they also feature plenty of their own experiences to make for a memorable holiday getaway.

Dollywood's DreamMore Resort and Spa

Dolly's original resort, Dollywood's DreamMore Resort and Spa, shines extra bright with an abundance of green and red décor, larger-than-life Christmas trees and a nightly outdoor tree lighting show synced to holiday tunes. Guests at the newly renovated resort can also meet with several of Santa's elves through Camp DW events and crafts. Choose from sipping complimentary hot apple cider to writing letters to Santa to festive crafts like decorating gingerbread houses, creating wreaths and making ornaments. (These crafts come at an additional fee.) The whole family can also enjoy s'mores roasting and bedtime stories in the resort's outdoor barn, as well as roaming entertainment that fills the resort with the sounds of the season.

For those seeking some "me time" before the big holiday rush, The Spa at Dollywood's DreamMore Resort is offering seasonal treatments. Choose from a candy cane-scented mani-pedi combo, a radiance facial for the perfect holiday glow, and a hot stone massage to warm and relax tense muscles from winter's chill. To learn more about the spa and its treatments, visit here.

Dollywood's HeartSong Lodge & Resort

At Dolly's newest resort, Dollywood's HeartSong Lodge & Resort, guests will discover nature-inspired holiday décor representative of its Smoky Mountain roots. The 302-room Lodge offers a showstopping fireplace where book readings from the Imagination Library take place daily, as well as outdoor firepits for campfire roasties and fireside sing-a-longs of popular Christmas carols. Talented roaming musicians perform daily and the Lodge hosts special performances in its Acoustic Lobby every Friday and Saturday evening, along with drinks, appetizers and desserts. Guests can also choose from a variety of craft activities through Camp DW, including gingerbread puppy stuffies, Christmas-themed painting activities and creating a nativity scene in a mason jar.

Dollywood Resorts' culinary teams make sure guests feel like they're home for the holidays ... without having to do the dishes. Restaurants feature a variety of Tennessee favorites like biscuits, fried chicken and Dollywood's famous cinnamon bread. The resorts have also put together holiday

dinner menus for Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and New Year's Eve for an even larger feast.

To make a holiday getaway complete, book the resorts' Christmas Tree Décor Package, which includes a decorated three-foot faux Christmas tree, letter from Santa's elves, baked cookies, commemorative ornament, Christmas-themed gift for each child and assortment of holiday candies. The package is available throughout the duration of the Smoky Mountain Christmas festival at a starting rate of $329 per night.*
