Readers of Meetings Today
Historic Resort in Cooperstown Earns Top Honor from Meeting Planners

Cooperstown, New York (July 14, 2020) – The Otesaga Resort Hotel, a historic lakeside property located in Cooperstown, New York, dubbed “America’s Most Perfect Village,” has earned a “Best of” Award from the readers of Meetings Today.

Meetings Today publishes content geared toward the meetings industry. Each year it surveys its readers, who organize events all around the world, to determine the best hotels and resorts for meetings and events in North America. The properties are judged on the quality of meeting space, guest rooms, services and amenities, food and beverage, tech and bandwidth support, recreational facilities and activities, helpfulness of staff, and overall value and experience.

The Otesaga Resort Hotel is one of a very select group of properties that won the award this year. All winners will be highlighted in the September 2020 print edition of the magazine, as well as its digital publication.

The honor comes in a year when the travel industry in general and the meetings industry specifically have taken huge hits due to COVID-19. The Otesaga hosts hundreds of meetings and events in a typical year, but 2020 has been anything but typical. Thanks to its many long-term relationships with groups from throughout the region and strong partnerships with meeting planners, The Otesaga has already rescheduled many events for future years.

“This is a tremendous honor for us, and it puts us in a good position as the meetings industry focuses on regaining its foothold,” said Jim Miles, general manager of the resort. “Many meetings are planned months and even years in advance, so it’s never too early to be thinking about how The Otesaga can factor into future events.”

The Otesaga is welcoming meetings and events for the remainder of this year, with new health and safety protocols in place to ensure plenty of social distancing. With more than 30,000 square feet of event space, including 14 flexible meeting rooms and plenty of outdoor venues for social events, The Otesaga is sure to continue to be a top choice among meeting planners.
