The Otesaga's lakeside location provides a winter playground for cold-weather aficionados. Guests are encouraged to pack their cross-country skis or snowshoes so they can fully explore the resort's scenic grounds and nearby trails.

There are plenty of indoor activities, too. The Otesaga offers a calendar of events that includes daily history tours and weekly activities such as wine tastings, beer tastings, photography tours, mediation classes, yoga, drawing classes, and an Afternoon Tea and Table Setting Class. And though the resort's award-winning Leatherstocking Golf Course is closed for the season, guests can still practice their swing by booking a game on the Trackman indoor golf simulator at the Otesaga's Clubhouse. Plus, Hawkeye Spa offers additional opportunities for wintertime relaxation and pampering with massages, facials and add-on enhancements.

Guests staying at the 132-room resort can enjoy meals at its signature restaurant, Hawkeye Bar & Grill, which serves locally sourced ingredients for breakfast, lunch and dinner. On Wednesdays and Thursdays, the restaurant also offers a three-course internationally themed dinner that highlights a different culture each week. The meals, which cost $30 per person, feature culinary highlights from countries like Germany, India, Jamaica and Portugal. This link offers glimpses into all the upcoming themed nights.

The best way to experience The Otesaga is with an overnight package. Two ways to save on a winter stay include:
