

Feeding Your Feed in Time for National Ice Cream Month The Most Insta-Worthy Ice Cream Concoctions

As summer goes on and temperatures continue to rise, there's no better way to beat the heat than with a scoop (or two!) of delicious ice cream. And what better time to celebrate this frozen delight than during National Ice Cream Month in July? To help you make the most of this mouthwatering month, we've curated a list of the most Instagram-worthy ice creams that are sure to make your followers drool with envy. So, get ready to scoop, snap and share because you'll want to make sure you try these treats in person to get some pics for yourself!

You can see our Insta-worthy concoctions HERE.

Hawaiian Wiggle Super Sundae

Frostburg Freeze in Frostburg, Maryland

Though the Super Sundae menu at this generational ice cream shop might seem overwhelming, you'll find nothing but attractive and downright delicious offerings of custom sundae creations. The Hawaiian Wiggle Super Sundae is a tantalizing tropical treat, with vanilla soft serve topped by a generous amount of pineapple sauce, coconut flakes, whipped cream and, of course, a cherry. Why is it the Hawaiian Wiggle, you ask? The whipped cream wiggles on the pineapple topping, almost like a hula dancer. You may be in the Mountain Side of Maryland, but each bite is an island indulgence that will almost bring the sounds of crashing waves to your ears. This year, Frostburg Freeze is celebrating its Platinum Jubilee, with its first female owner serving up social-worthy scoops.

Peanut Butter Brownie Bliss

The Yard Milkshake Bar in Gulf Shores, Alabama

Though this Instagrammable shop has spread all over the country courtesy of Shark Tank, the original Yard Milkshake Bar can be found on the white sandy shores of Gulf Shores, Alabama. Each shake comes in a souvenir mason jar, and if you're going for the treat that'll get you the most likes, you'll want to try the Peanut Butter Brownie Bliss. Fudgy Brownie Sundae ice cream is the decadent base, followed by both (because who can choose just one?) chocolate and peanut butter drizzles, along with whipped cream, a brownie and more drizzles. Don't forget the jar! That's dipped in peanut butter and rolled in dark chocolate shavings for an extra-sweet touch.

Ice Cream Flight

Sugar Creek Snowy & Sweet in Woodstock, Virginia

Do you ever walk into an ice cream shop and have to taste test 10 different yummy flavors before agonizingly choosing just one? At Sugar Creek, hungry patrons don't have that problem! You get to choose a whopping eight different flavors for your mini-scoop ice cream flight, making sure all your favorites don't go unappreciated. Don't let the "mini-scoop" description fool you. Speaking from experience, these hefty scoops are plenty for two (or more) people!

Pavlova

Prima Après in Mandeville, Louisiana

This sophisticated pasta and pavlova store opened just a few months ago, but it's already making a name for itself on The Northshore. Pavlova is a French meringue dessert that's typically crisp on the outside and marshmallow-y on the inside. But it doesn't stop there ... it's crowned with vanilla bean ice cream and toppings such as caramel, chocolate sauce, toasted coconut and sprinkles. What starts as a myriad of textures and flavors somehow comes together in the ultimate Instagram dessert!

Cotton Candy Sushi

Ripleigh's Creamery in York, Pennsylvania

This sugar-tastic goodness is every kid (and kid-at-heart)'s dream! With birthday cake ice cream rolled into two layers of cotton candy that are topped with sprinkles, strawberry sauce, Fruity Pebbles and served with a side of whip and Pocky Sticks, this sweet take on sushi is sure to win over your followers. Teenager Ripleigh Maring partnered with her mom to start her ice cream operation when she was just 14. Now, three years and a few more ice cream stores later, Ripleigh has taken the ice cream world by storm with her creative takes on this classic summer treat.

Strawberry Cheesecake Explosion

Central Sno in Lockport, Louisiana

And though they technically don't have a true ice cream shop, we had to pay homage to Louisiana's Cajun Bayou and their famous Louisiana snowballs, which are almost as enjoyable as ice cream on a hot summer's day. You're probably familiar with the classic snowball flavors like grape, blue raspberry and cherry. Those have been available since you were a kid. But here in Louisiana, you'll find more exotic flavors ... like nectar, wedding cake, tiger's blood, and, of course, king cake! One of Central Sno's most impressive offerings is their Strawberry Cheesecake Explosion. Starting with strawberry and Creole cream cheese flavored syrups, the snowball is then topped with strawberries, whipped cream, condensed milk and – wait for it! – a slice of cheesecake.

Whether you're snapping pics for your feed or simply indulging in a delicious scoop, these cool treats are guaranteed to satisfy your sweet tooth. Grab a spoon – and your phone – and dig in!

###

MEDIA CONTACT

Mallory Furry

mallory@mindybiancapr.com