

Sip Happens: Louisiana's Sweet Spot Cocktail Trail Returns to Stir up Summer Fun

Sorrento, Louisiana (April 21, 2026) – Louisiana's Sweet Spot Cocktail Trail is back for 2026 and ready to raise the bar, inviting visitors to sip, savor and sample their way through Ascension Parish's most spirited stops. Now in its fifth year, this summer tradition, which is sponsored by the Ascension Parish Tourism Commission (APTC), the Parish of Ascension and Noel Family Distillery, returns with a record-breaking 20 participating locations. That makes this year's the largest event to date.

This sweet adventure runs May 1 through July 31 and blends craft cocktails and local flavor into one unforgettable seasonal experience. Guests can pick up a Cocktail Trail passport at a participating location and embark on a self-guided tour of restaurants and distilleries, each serving up a signature "Sweet Spot Cocktail" that was created just for this occasion. Along the way, participants collect stamps for every drink they try ... because when it comes to summer fun, more is merrier (and a little muddled).

From fruity sips to bold, spirit-forward creations, the trail showcases the creativity of local mixologists while supporting small businesses across the parish. Participants who collect eight or more stamps can redeem their passport at the visitor center (located at 2300 S. Tanger Boulevard, Suite 136 Gonzales, LA 70737) for a cocktail-themed gift. They'll also be entered into the grand prize giveaway, so it quite literally pays to sip local!

Grab your friends and get ready to have a pour-fectly good time. In Louisiana's Sweet Spot, the only question is ... shaken or stirred?
